

A workshop presented by Northern Arizona University's Human Research Protection Program and The Center for Health Equity Research.

CHANGES TO THE COMMON RULE: Effects on Health Research and Community Partnerships

To Register go to cher.nau.edu/events

May 1, 2018
10:00 AM - 3:45 PM

Native American Cultural Center

318 West McCreary Drive
Flagstaff AZ 86011
Northern Arizona University
Building #14

Workshop is free of charge
and includes lunch.

Space is limited.

RCR Training Eligible.
Remote call in available.

Questions

Contact the NAU HRPP Office
at irb@nau.edu or 928-523-9551

This workshop will focus on recent changes to the Federal law regulating human research protections. Topics of discussion include an overview of revised regulations, how they affect the research community, and intersections with research with Indigenous populations/Tribal Consultation Policy, and research involving sensitive records and Private Health Information.

Workshop Speakers:

Mariette Marsh

Director, Human Subjects Protection Program,
University of Arizona

Melissa Soliz

Attorney at Law, Coppersmith Brockelman, PLC

Priscilla Sanderson

Associate Professor, Health Sciences, NAU

Chad Hamill

Vice President for Native American Initiatives,
NAU

Marie Peoples

Chief Health Officer, Coconino County

Paula McAllister

Research & Development Support Specialist,
Northern Arizona Healthcare

Samantha Sabo

Associate Professor, Health Sciences, NAU

Mary Hanabury

Director, Human Research Protection Program, NAU

ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES

ARIZONA BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH COMMISSION